

Our Services

Lawtæm (pronounced “loh-tehm”) is a premier boutique law firm focused on making technology companies thrive in Latin America.

We are re-inventing the business model of a law firm and placed our primary interest in our clients and our talent.

We also leverage decades of experience and concentrate only on the legal needs of technology companies in Latin America.

At Lawtæm, we are committed to making a difference in the Latin American legal ecosystem, treating our clients in a expert, efficient and budget-conscious manner, while keeping our regional team happy, friendly, tightly-knit and in constant training and improvement.

We combine our legal expertise, technology-driven approach and deep understanding of the local legal landscape to help clients optimize their legal operations, reduce costs, and enhance overall business performance.
